Trinity Designs

The newest African-American-owned doll company of the 21st century, Trinity Designs, focuses on creating collectible fashion dolls designed in the likeness of minority groups. From various occupations to social groups, Trinity Designs will provide an array of minority inspired dolls. "The Essence of..." doll collection, the premier line of Trinity Designs, is designed to capture the true essence of the sorority sister and fraternity brother. "The Essence of a Delta" is the first doll of this series. The 16-inch fashion collectible proudly displays her sculpted hands in the Delta sign. She also sings a verse of "She's a D.E.L.T.A.," making her the first audio equipped collectible fashion doll.
